

Brooks Bouquet

Brooks Bouquet is a finger manipulated technique which is done on an open shed, generally of plain weave.

As shown in the sample below, the weft wraps around the top of the warp in an open shed, in groups; the number of warp threads to be wrapped can vary and they are spaced by plain weave. The wrapping produces small spaces.

The wrapping can be done with the ground weft, as shown here, or with a decorative weft.