

Danish Medallion

Danish medallion is a finger manipulated technique done on plain weave. A contrasting weft is added to a shed, in the sample below in blue; after several shots of the ground weft, the contrasting color is reintroduced and pulled down to the previous pick and anchored, as shown on the sample.

